

NUMBER	PICTURE	PLANT NAME AND DESCRIPTION	CATEGORY	MARKET PRICE PER UNIT
T-14		Salsola kali These salt-tolerant plants are commonly found in coastal salt marshes and can thrive in the saline soils of the Namibian coast.	Ground covers
T-15		Desert grasses Stipagrostis / Eragrostis These grasses are important for stabilizing sand dunes and preventing erosion along the coast. They are also a vital food source for herbivores.	Wild Grasses
T-16		Elephant Bush Portulacaria afra In Namibia, its small, fleshy leaves help it survive in arid desert conditions.	Succulents
T-17		Living Stones Lithops species These succulents mimic the appearance of pebbles, helping them blend in with their rocky surroundings and avoid being eaten by herbivores.	Succulent
T-18		Fig tree Theese figs are not only delicious, their large leaves help create shade and reduce air temperature around them!"	Tree
T-19		Grass kikuyu and Kavango	GROUND COVER

PROJECT WALVIS BAY PROMENADE

KAREN MILLER
ARCHITECT

P.O. BOX 1753
SWAKOPMUND
TEL: +264 64 40 7121
FAX: +264 64 40 7036

TITLE RECOMMENDED PLANTS 3

DATE SEPT 2024	SCALE	PROJ. NO. 274	DWG. NO. DT-37
DRAWN KM/JJK	REV		